Fish Island Village is a thriving, creative hub, set in the heart of Hackney Wick. This vibrant canalside neighbourhood offers everything you need for modern living, with a collection of stylish apartments, innovative workspaces and picturesque courtyards.

It's the ideal place to live, work and play. By day, stroll along the water's edge and soak up the creative energy and by night, sample delicious street food and socialise in one of the local bars, which are all within walking distance.

Grovelea Building is part of Neptune Walk, our third and final phase of Fish Island Village and consists of highly specified 1, 2 & 3 bedroom apartments, many benefiting from stunning views over the Hertford Union Canal, as well as the more private courtyard of Wansbeck Yard.

Grovelea Building

A COMMUNITY BROUGHT TO LIFE

This exciting new waterside community fully captures the creative vibe of this bohemian part of London and has the true spirit of Fish Island at its core. The overarching vision for Fish Island Village was around creating an inclusive, sustainable and supportive environment for all that live here and now that so many people have moved in, this community is being realised.

Neptune Walk may be our final phase, but we know it's certainly an exciting new opportunity for you to experience the Fish Island lifestyle.

The apartments within Neptune Walk have been specifically designed to combine canalside living with an option of a more intimate setting in the form of Wansbeck Yard, the internal courtyard garden.

What's more, the canal can be accessed via the beautifully landscaped Smeed Gardens, a place to socialise or relax as you see fit and that physically links the previous phases of Fish Island Village.

FLEXIBLE LIVING SPACE

These buildings perfectly complement the authentic character of the surrounding architectural style, as well as a natural connection to the rest of Fish Island Village. Grovelea Building itself epitomises this vision, comprising modern apartments and flexible commercial space to the ground floor.

There are a high proportion of dual aspect homes, most of which benefit from being within our Capitol Collection, which provides the highest level of specification within Fish Island Village. What's more, many apartments also enjoy the benefit of winter gardens, which allows you to make the most of outside space, no matter the weather. Simply open the outer doors to use the space like a balcony, or close them to provide a light, but cosy environment. You could also use this space for home working or a creative hobby.

Finally, all residents in Grovelea Building can access the communal rooftop garden, a relaxing external space with lawn seating areas and tables, making it a great place to spend some time reading, soaking up some rays or taking in the view. The garden also includes a number of raised planters available to residents for their own productive gardening, so get your green thumbs at the ready.

BE INSPIRED BY ALL THAT'S AROUND YOU

Fish Island Village offers high quality homes and shared courtyards and workspaces, which combine to offer the perfect work/life balance. Inspired by concrete and brick warehouse buildings, the traditional wharf-style apartments within Neptune Walk spill out on to public plazas, perfect to relax and unwind in.

Fish Island Village has been brought to life by a team of architects and designers. Lead architects and Stirling Prize-winners, Haworth Tompkins, designed the apartment blocks around the courtyard area and the canal-facing buildings.

Graham Haworth and Ken Okonkwo of Haworth Tompkins had a clear vision for the project: "We didn't want to change the character of the area, we wanted to enhance it," says Graham. "The vision was to tap into the industrial heritage of Fish Island and the creative workspace legacy that's so poignant in the area. There are a lot of artist studios and interesting creative factory spaces already in existence and we felt this was a great opportunity to create a vibrant mixed-use development that is true to its roots. Lots of schemes in London are one-dimensional, but this scheme has so many layers that overlap and intermingle. We wanted to reinforce the DNA of Fish Island and create a proper place for people to live, work and socialise."

This stunning final phase of homes within Neptune Walk have been designed to provide a seamless and cohesive addition to the existing community within Fish Island Village, linked via Smeed Gardens, but it now also sees the introduction of some standout details that set them apart from existing buildings. Practical winter gardens allow residents to use their external space all year round, whilst a roof garden to the entire top floor of Grovelea Building, provides a more private communal social setting that so many crave.

There is also an external meeting place in the form of Wansbeck Yard and this landscaped courtyard garden behind Grovelea Building is enhanced on the other side of these apartments by the continued footpath alongside the canal. What's more, architecturally, there is a more bold and celebratory look to the buildings within Neptune Walk, with vertical piers and a sweeping arch to the landmark Grovelea Building in particular. The glazed terracotta ceramic crown to the top of the building provides a certain shimmer, whilst intricate sawtooth brick patterns under the gold metalworking to each floor adds another layer of design intrigue.
