AN AREA STEEPED IN HISTORY

Renowned for leafy garden squares and effortlessly elegant Georgian crescents, Clifton is steeped in rich history. Regency mansions and stucco-fronted villas line the streets directly adjacent to The Clifton Collection, a setting that reflects the area's Victorian affluence and architectural splendour, imbuing it with a sophisticated sense of refinement.

World-famous landmarks nearby, include the 18th-century Clifton Observatory which enjoys stunning views towards Avon Gorge and the Clifton Suspension Bridge.

The historic Clifton Rocks Railway is another essential part of the area's prestigious heritage, as is The Promenade, a grand, tree-lined avenue where wealthy Regency ladies once used to take the air.

WITH ITS BOUTIQUE CINEMA, VICTORIAN ARCADES AND LEAFY PARKLANDS, BRISTOL OFFERS A CULTURED ESCAPE THAT DELIGHTS AT EVERY TURN.

Start your morning with a legendary breakfast at Boston Tea Party, known for zingy smoothies ready to set you up for the day. Or if you'd prefer something lighter, swing by Better Food for Clifton's juiciest organic fruit and veg from their vibrant deli.

For your everyday essentials, take a short stroll to Whiteladies Road, less than a mile away from home. Pick up your groceries at Sainsbury's, stop into one of the local pharmacies or browse a tempting mix of eateries and cafés.

If you need to run a few errands, the nearby Co-op and Clifton Village Pharmacy have you covered. If you're in the mood for something a little more unique, take a wander through the charming Clifton Arcade, a Victorian treasure trove of eccentric boutiques.

After a spot of shopping, treat yourself to a leisurely meal at local favourites like Japanese restaurant Kibou, The Ivy or The Albion.

As the day unwinds, take a 15-minute stroll, exploring the thriving neighbourhood filled with bakeries, cafés and bars – perfect for a relaxed afternoon or a spontaneous evening out.

For film lovers, The Everyman Cinema takes things up a notch. You and your loved one can cosy up on a sofa for two with a glass of red and a slice of freshly made pizza.

For something a little more indulgent, round off your day at The Lido. This restored Victorian pool and spa offers a tranquil escape to unwind after a long day. Enjoy wellness treatments and a spot of dinner in the onsite restaurant.
